Egyptian Heritage Museum

The Ancient Egyptian history Museum covers a continuous period of over four thousand years of Egypt's historic sites, which are among the world's greatest tourist attractions. The idea for its museum came alive because of the feeling that Hurghada, along with all its other attraction, needed to display the heritage of ancient Egypt. In the display they are 140 pieces representing masterpieces of ancient Egyptian art.

The presented masterpieces offer the museums' visitors a glimpse into the genius of ancient Egyptian civilization and may perhaps inspire them to visit other museums and archaeological sites.
